

Maine Home

LOOKBOOK

The Best of MH+D 2015

+DESIGN

THE ROOM-BY-ROOM GUIDE

50+ Inspiring Ideas for Your Space

Bath

Although tile options can seem unlimited and overwhelming, don't overthink it. Choose an inspiration to start—a pattern, material, photograph, or style—then share your idea with a professional. Collaborating with an expert will not only help to bring what you envision to life, but will also ensure the important technical details relating to tile and installation are not overlooked.

—KATIE CAPOZZA, OLD PORT SPECIALTY TILE

DESIGN IS IN THE DETAILS // AUGUST 2014

IN ORDER TO MATCH THE STONE THAT WAS USED FOR THE OVERSIZED PORTHOLE WINDOW CASING, THE FRAME IS FAUX-PAINTED TO LOOK (AND FEEL) LIKE MARBLE. THE CUSTOM CABINETRY DESIGNED BY TRACY DAVIS OF URBAN DWELLINGS AND BUILT BY KNICKERBOCKER GROUP FEATURES BUILT-IN TOILETRY SHELVES THAT SLIDE OUT FROM THE PANELING BESIDE THE MIRRORS.

Architect, Builder & Cabinetry: Knickerbocker Group

Interior Designer: Urban Dwellings

Faux Painter: Chameleon Coatings Hospitality

Interior Stone Work: Morningstar Stone & Tile

Lighting Design: Greg Day Lighting

Photography: Irvin Serrano

Dining Area

GENERATIONS JOINED // MARCH 2015

THIS DINING ROOM FEATURES NICKEL-GAP WALLS, CEILING BOARDS FROM MUSHROOM FARMS, AND APPLIED FIR RAFTERS. A CUSTOM CEDAR-LINED TRUNK ON THE FAR WALL HIDES AWAY PUZZLES AND TOYS (AND WAS BUILT WIDE ENOUGH FOR NAPS).

Architect, Builder, Interior Designer, Kitchen & Bath Designer & Custom Cabinetry: Knickerbocker Group

Chandelier: Restoration Hardware

Structural Engineer: Lincoln/Haney Engineering Associates

Table & Chairs: Arhaus

Photography: Rachel Sieben

